Dear Mr. Meredith,

I would like to take this opportunity to tell you how much I admire your courage and how I hope you will be able to continue your education at U.M.

Having just read the book "Black Like Me" I feel I realize better the feelings in the South (and especially in Miss.) of whites toward Negroes. I cannot imagine the fear I would have ~~an~~ were I in your place.

Although it seems trite to say, I wish you the best of luck (for lack of a better word) in realizing your goals.

Unfortunately, I am one of the many whites who feels so apologetic for my people but am (seemingly) unable to do anything about it.

Again, I applaud you for your courage and even thank you as I believe what you have done will eventually lead to a much better America.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Sarah Nelson
